

3K GREEK VALUE DOMESTIC EQUITY FUND

(Decision No. 240/13.5.2015 of the Head of the Hellenic Capital Market Commission's Directorate of Capital Market Intermediaries)

REGULATIONSArticle 1 – THE FUND

1. The Mutual Fund with the name 3K GREEK VALUE DOMESTIC EQUITY FUND, hereinafter referred to as the Mutual Fund, was established pursuant to approval decision No. 240/13.5.2015 of the head of the Hellenic Capital Market Commission's Directorate of Capital Market Intermediaries granting approval for establishment of the mutual fund, with initial assets of € 300,000.00, and an initial unit price of € 5 for the Retail units class and € 10 for the Institutional units class. The fund is open-ended, commencing from 26.5.2015, which was date on which the certificate from the Mutual Fund's Custodian about the initial assets being deposited was submitted to the Hellenic Capital Market Commission (hereinafter the Mutual Fund Start Date) and is governed by the provisions of Law 4099/2012 (Government Gazette 250/A/20.12.2012) as in force from time to time (hereinafter the Law) and these Regulations.
2. The Mutual fund is a pool of assets comprised of transferable securities, money market instruments and cash, whose individual assets belong indivisibly to more than one unitholder. The Mutual Fund is not a legal entity and its unitholders shall be represented both in and out of court in their legal relations arising from management of the Fund and their rights to its assets by the Manager. The latter manages the Mutual Fund by complying with the provisions of the Law, performing its duties in accordance with the principle that all unitholders must be treated fairly.
3. Mutual Fund unitholders are not liable for the acts or omissions of the Manager or the Custodian when those parties are discharging their duties.

Article 2 – MANAGER – CUSTODIAN

S.A., trading as 3K INVESTMENT PARTNERS.

2. The Manager may sell units in the Mutual Fund directly and/or via credit institutions, management companies, insurance companies, investment firms and portfolio investment firms.
3. The Manager may give up managing the Mutual Fund only if the conditions laid down in Article 21 of the Law are met.
4. The duties of Mutual Fund Custodian are performed on the basis of a written contract signed with the Manager by the bank with the corporate name Piraeus Bank S.A. whose registered offices are at 4 Amerikis St., Athens. The Custodian shall be liable for properly performing all duties and obligations specified in Article 36 of the Law, and the duties deriving from the relevant custodianship agreement signed with the Manager, including but not limited to the safekeeping of the Mutual Fund's assets, cash monitoring, executing orders from the Manager apart from those contrary to the provisions of Law 4099/2012, the decisions of the Hellenic Capital Market Commission issued pursuant to it and the Mutual Fund's regulations, complying with the obligation to provide information to both the Manager and the Hellenic Capital Market Commission, and the Manager is obliged to monitor proper implementation of the Custodian's duties.

5. The Custodian may give up its duties provided it gives the Manager at least 3 months advance notice and the new Custodian is approved by the Hellenic Capital Market Commission or it may be replaced following a request made by the Manager and approved by the Hellenic Capital Market Commission in accordance with the specific provisions of Article 36(10) of the Law. A Custodian which has resigned or been replaced shall continue to perform its duties until the new Custodian has fully taken up its duties, to whom all assets of the Mutual Fund shall be handed over, and a report on this matter shall be prepared. The fact that the Custodian has resigned or been replaced and the fact that a new Custodian has taken up its duties shall be promptly notified by the Manager to unitholders in the Mutual Fund using a durable medium and by posting a notice to that effect on its website.
6. In performing their duties, the Manager and the Custodian are obliged to act in a honourable and lawful manner, with professionalism, independence and in the exclusive interests of the Fund and its unitholders. The Custodian must not take steps in relation to the Fund or the Manager acting on its behalf, which could cause conflicts of interest between the Fund, its unitholders, the Manager and itself, excluding only the case where it has functionally and hierarchically divided the execution of its duties as Custodian from other duties it has which could cause conflicts of interest, and where it has identified, managed, monitored and suitably notified potential conflicts of interest which arise to unitholders in the Fund.
7. The Custodian shall be liable in accordance with the Law to the Fund and its unitholders for loss by it or a third party to whom custodianship has been delegated of the financial instruments placed in its custody in accordance with Article 36(6)(a) of the Law. Where financial instruments which were placed in safekeeping are lost, the Custodian shall promptly return a financial instrument of the same type or of corresponding amount to the Fund or Manager acting on the Fund's behalf. The Custodian shall not be liable where it is proven that the loss was due to an extraneous event beyond its reasonable control whose consequences would not have been avoidable despite reasonable efforts to the contrary. The Custodian shall also be liable to the Fund and its unitholders for any other losses suffered as a result of intentional or negligent improper performance of the obligations it has in law. The Custodian's liability cannot be excluded or limited under

- contract and is not affected by any delegation done pursuant to Article 36a of the Law.
8. Unitholders in the Fund may cite the Custodian's liability, directly or indirectly via the Manager, provided that that does not lead to overlaps in the redress filed or unequal treatment of the unitholders.
 9. The Custodian may not delegate the functions specified in Article 36(4) and (5) of the Law to third parties. However, the Fund asset safekeeping function specified in Article 36(6) of the Law may be delegated to third parties provided the following conditions are met: a) the duties are not delegated to avoid complying with the requirements of the Law, b) the Custodian can demonstrate that there was an objective reason for such delegation and c) the Custodian has demonstrated due skill, care and diligence when selecting and appointing any third party to whom it intends to delegate its duties, and continues to demonstrate due skill, care and diligence when periodically re-examining and constantly checking any third party - provider, and the arrangements which the latter has made in relation to the duties delegated to it. Delegation of fund asset safekeeping in accordance with the above is governed by Article 36a of the Law.
 10. Subject to the conditions laid down in Article 22 of the Law, the Manager and Custodian may assign part of their operations / functions to third parties.

Article 3 – INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE, INVESTMENT POLICY, PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT METHOD, PERMITTED INVESTMENTS AND LIMITS, NON-ACQUISITION OF SIGNIFICANT INFLUENCE, DEGREE OF INVESTMENT RISK AND CHARACTERISTICS OF THE AVERAGE UNITHOLDER

1. The investment objective of the 3K Greek Value Domestic Equity Fund is to achieve capital appreciation by investing primarily in equities of companies listed on the Athens Exchange (ATHEX).
2. To achieve its objectives, the Mutual Fund invests at least 65% of its assets in equities on the Athens Exchange. To a lesser degree it may also invest part of its assets in the equities of foreign companies in an endeavour to maximise its yield. It may also invest much smaller percentages in other transferable securities, money market instruments, fixed yield instruments, bank deposits and units or shares in Undertakings for Collective Investments in Transferable Securities (UCITS).
3. The Manager shall actively manage the Mutual Fund. Equities shall be chosen having analysed and evaluated factors such as: the prospects of growth, the company's value, the quality of management, dividend policy and other qualitative and quantitative criteria. In addition, emphasis is also placed on the financials for the sectors to which the companies belong, and the risks and opportunities entailed. The Mutual Fund may also invest in lower cap, dynamically developing companies which over time may generate major added value. When managing the Fund, derivatives may also be used, primarily for hedging purposes.

4. The Mutual Fund may make investments in the following instruments:
 - (I). Transferable securities and money market instruments which:
 - (a) are accepted or admitted to trading on a regulated market within the meaning of Article 2(10) of Law 3606/2007 and the similar provisions of national law of the Member States which transpose Article 1(4)(14) of Directive 2004/39/EC into national law.
 - (b) are traded on another supervised market of a Member State which operates normally, is acknowledged and open to the public.
 - (c) are accepted on a securities exchange of another state or which are traded on another supervised market of another state which operates normally, is acknowledged and open to the public.
 - (II) Newly-issued transferable securities which are to be listed on a securities exchange or other market within 1 year from being issued at the latest.
 - (III) Deposits with credit institutions payable to depositors on demand or time deposits of up to 12 months duration, in accordance with the conditions laid down in Article 59(1)(f) of the Law.
 - (IV) money market instruments not traded on a supervised market under the conditions laid down in Article 59(1)(h).
 - (V). Derivative financial instruments under the conditions laid down in Article 59(1)(g) and
 - (VI) Units in UCITS or other equivalent collective investment undertakings within the meaning of Article 59(1)(e) of the Law.

Moreover, the Mutual Fund may invest up to 10% of its net assets in other transferable securities or money market instruments which are not listed above.

5. The Mutual Fund may not acquire transferable securities and/or money market instruments from the same issuer where they account for more than 10% of its net assets. Up to 40% of the Fund's net assets may be placed in transferable securities and/or money market instruments of issuers, in each of which a sum of more than 5% of Fund net assets have been invested. That restriction shall not apply to deposits and OTC derivative transactions. The Mutual Fund shall not be permitted to place more than 20% of its net assets in deposits with the same credit institution while in the case of OTC derivatives the exposure to risk to a counterparty which is one and the same credit institution may not exceed 10% of its net assets, or 5% where the counterparty is not a credit institution. The investment in UCITS units may not exceed 10% in total of the Fund's total assets. Moreover, the Mutual Fund shall not be permitted to have a combined holding of over 20% of its net assets in: a) investments in transferable securities of money market instruments issued by the same organisation, b) deposits at that organisation and/or c) risks from OTC derivatives whose counterparty is that organisation.

6. Save for the exceptions cited in Article 64 of the Law, the Mutual Fund is not permitted to acquire more than 10% securities with or without voting rights in the same issuer and 25% of all units in a UCITS or other collective investment undertaking referred to in Article 59(1)(e) of the Law. Moreover, the Manager shall not be permitted, in relation to all UCITS managed, to acquire more than 10% of the corresponding category of securities from the same issuer, with or without voting rights.
7. The investment risk assumed by the Mutual Fund is considered to be high, since its portfolio primarily invests in equities where there may be significant price fluctuations.
8. The Mutual Fund is aimed at investors with a long-term investment horizon who wish to tie their investment into the performance and results of companies listed on ATHEX and secondarily to tie it into companies listed on exchanges or doing business abroad.
9. The Mutual Fund has received authorisation from the Hellenic Capital Market Commission (Decision No. 240/13.5.2015 of the head of the Directorate of Capital Market Intermediaries) to deviate from the investment thresholds in point 5 of this Article of the Regulations, and the investment thresholds in general referred to in Article 61 of the Law, for a period of 6 months from the date of the authorisation to establish the Mutual Fund. During the period referred to in the previous sentence, the Manager shall make mutual fund investments in line with the risk allocation principle, and after that deadline of 6 months expires, the Manger shall take all steps required by the legislation to ensure the Mutual Fund complies with all investment thresholds specified in these Regulations and the Law.

Article 4 – MUTUAL FUND ASSET VALUATION RULES

1. The net assets of the Mutual Fund, the number of units, the net unit price, the sale price and the redemption price of units, per class of units, are computed for each working day and posted on the Manager's website on the internet.
 - a) To compute the value of the Fund's net assets one must deduct in the manner outlined in Article 6 of these Regulations, (i) the fees and commission of the Manager, the Custodian and members of regulated markets, the cost of publications mandated by law and other expenses specified in Article 6 of these Regulations, as well as (ii) profits which may be distributed to unitholders valued on 31 December each year.
 - b) To compute the net value of units in each class of units, the section of the Fund's net assets corresponding to each class of units must be divided by the number of units in that class. The sale price and redemption price for units in each class may as appropriate exceed or be less than the net price for units in that class by a figure corresponding to the sales or redemption commission applied.
3. The Manager shall value the Fund's assets using the accounting rules adopted in a decision of the Hellenic Capital Market Commission.

Article 5 - UNITS - SALE AND REDEMPTION THEREOF

1. The Fund's assets are divided into units. The number of units in circulation increases with the issuing and sale of new units, and reduces with the redemption of units. Units are divided into 2 classes: An Institutional units class which is only available to institutional investors and a Retail units class which is available to other investors apart from institutional investors. Units in the same class have the same value and entitle unitholders to the same rights. The classes are different in the following respects: (a) the sale and redemption commission rate payable by unitholders in each class when purchasing and redeeming units and (b) the management fee rate which is computed on their assets.

2. In both unit classes the sale and redemption commission are up to the maximum thresholds specified in these Regulations, which are set out in the detail in the Key Investor Information document for each class of units. The unit price is computed separately for each class of units. The initial unit price for the Retail units class was € 5 on the date the Mutual Fund was established (26.5.2015) and the initial unit price of the Institutional units class on the date the class was established was € 10 (the date on which this class was established means the date on which units in the Investor class are first subscribed).

3. Membership of the Mutual Fund is demonstrated by the relevant units and the particulars of the beneficiary / beneficiaries being entered in a special electronic file held by the Manager. The Manager may assign the task of maintaining that special electronic file to a third party, subject to the provisions laid down in Article 22 of the Law as in force from time to time.

4. Where several persons subscribe to units in the Mutual Fund as joint beneficiaries of those units, the provisions of Law 5638/1932 on joint accounts shall apply. Units may be transferred inter vivos only between spouses and relatives to the first and second degree but may be pledged in accordance with Article 3(1) and (2) of Emergency Law 1818/1951 and Articles 1244 et seq. of the Hellenic Civil Code. In order for the pledge involving the units to be lawfully established, the transaction must be entered in the special file referred to in paragraph 2 which is held by the Manager. Where the pledgor submits an application of the Manager, its rights shall be satisfied by redeeming the units, in which case the provisions of Article 3(1) and (2) of Emergency Law 1818/1951, as in force, and Articles 1244 et seq. of the Hellenic Civil Code, shall apply

5. The following steps must be followed to join the Mutual Fund and acquire units as specified in Articles 7(1) or (2) and 82(1) of the Law:

- (a) The potential unitholder must submit an application to the Manager in the manner specified by it, which must then check the unitholder's identity.
- (b) The Manager or other legal entity acting on its behalf must provide the Key Investor Information document and

(c) The value of the units must be paid in full in cash to the Custodian, and/or provided that the Manager accepts them, the value may be paid in transferable securities within the meaning of Article 3(o) of the Law, listed on a regulated market within the meaning of Article 2(10) of Law 3606/2007.

When units are being sold, the Manager and Custodian are prohibited from granting credit to the detriment of the Mutual Fund.

6. The sale price of units is set based on the value of the unit on the day the application form is submitted, in accordance with the specific provisions of Article 11 of the Law and Article 4 of these Regulations. The Manager shall decide on whether or not to accept applications for membership of the Fund in accordance with Article 7(7) of the Law. The Manager may suspend the sale of units at its discretion.

7. The Manager shall be obliged to redeem units in the Mutual Fund following an application from unitholders, in accordance with the provisions of Article 8 of the Law. Where the unitholder wishes to redeem part of the units it holds, the application must cite the exact number of units the unitholder wishes to redeem. The proceeds from redemption shall be paid in cash in accordance with the specific provisions of Article 8(3) of the Law and the redemption price shall be the price of the date the relevant application was submitted. The proceeds from redemption shall be paid no later than 5 working days after the redemption application is submitted. Redemption of units may be suspended in exceptional cases if required under the circumstances in the interests of unitholders (this shall be done following an application filed by the Manager approved by the Hellenic Capital Market Commission), or bearing in mind the interests of unitholders and/or investors in general, it may also be done following a reasoned decision of the Hellenic Capital Market Commission, if appropriate, in accordance with the specific provisions of Article 8(4) and (5) of the Law.

Article 6 – FEES, COMMISSION AND EXPENSES

1. Unitholders are directly obliged to pay sale and redemption commission for Mutual Fund units which are set as follows:
 - Retail units class: Up to 3% for sale and up to 3% for redemption.
 - Institutional units class: Zero sale and redemption commission, computed based on the value of units acquired or redeemed. These amounts are collected by the Manager at the time the relevant transaction is entered into.

2. The following commission and expenses are deducted from the Mutual Fund's assets:

a) All payments to the persons below, including persons to which functions have been outsourced:

- the mutual fund management company
- the Custodian.

b) The fee of statutory auditors for auditing the Mutual Fund.

c) Payments to legal and other advisors.

d) Any distribution expenses (for example printing and postage expenses).

e) Prior period expenses.

f) Expenses, taxes and commission for transactions entered into on the Mutual Fund's behalf.

g) Expenses for publications made on the Mutual Fund's behalf which are required by law.

h) Expenses relating to the provision of information to Mutual Fund unitholders required by the relevant legislation.

i) Any taxes relating to the Mutual Fund imposed by the applicable legislation, levies payable to the Hellenic Capital Market Commission and related charges.

Of these expenses, distribution expenses (point d) and expenses for mandatory information provided to Mutual Fund unitholders in accordance with the relevant legislation (point h) are charged directly to the class of units held by unitholders these expenses relate to. Other expenses (points a, b, c, e, f, g and i) are payable by both classes of units pro rata with their holding in the Mutual Fund's assets.

3. The fees the Manager receives and the Custodianship fee for the 3K Greek Value Domestic Equity Fund are as follows:

a) Fees received by the Manager

⇒(i) Management Fee

- up to 2.00% per year for Retail units class
- up to 0.80% per year for Institutional units class

⇒(ii) A Performance Fee of up to 20% of any positive difference between the net unit price yield for each class of units and the yield of the current benchmark index. Yield must be computed on an annual basis and the reference period must be a calendar year. 2015 will be the first year for comparing the yield for units in each class against the benchmark.

Where the unit price in any class underperforms the benchmark for one or more years, the performance fee shall be calculated only where (a) any accumulated underperformance is first eliminated (i.e. the underperformance noted during a previous year/previous years has been made up) and (b) the yield on the net price for the specific class of units exceeds the overall benchmark performance for the entire calendar year.

Net price yield for units in a class of units is computed as the quotient of the difference between the net price of the unit in the specific class on each day from the price at the end of the previous calendar year divided by the net price of a unit in the same class at the end of the previous calendar year.

b) The custodianship fee for both classes of units is up to 0.30% per year.

Article 7 – PROFIT DISTRIBUTION

1. Fund revenues from interest and dividends may be distributed each year to unitholders having first deducted all expenses for the accounting period specified in Article 6 of the Regulations.
2. The Manager may re-invest or distribute profits to unitholders from the sale of Mutual Fund assets, at its discretion, having deducted any capital losses incurred by the end of the year.
3. Where the Manager decides to distribute profits they shall be distributed within 3 months from the end of the accounting period, which is 12 months in duration, and a notice to that effect, shall be posted on the Manager's website on the internet before distribution commences. Profits shall be distributed to all persons who hold units on the last day of the accounting period during which profits were generated.
4. Unitholders may request that their profits be re-invested in the Fund. This is commission-free.
5. When profits are paid out, the corresponding taxes shall be withheld in accordance with the legislation which applies at the time the profits are paid out.

Article 8 – WINDING UP OF MUTUAL FUND AND UNITHOLDERS' MEETING

1. The Mutual Fund shall be wound up where any of the grounds cited in Article 9(1) of the Law apply.
2. Where the Mutual Fund is wound up, its net assets will be distributed by the Custodian acting on instructions from the Manager. After the Mutual Fund's assets have been distributed, a special report will be prepared and signed by the Manager, the Custodian and the Mutual Fund's certified public accountant. The report will be sent without undue delay to the Hellenic Capital Market Commission, posted on the Manager's website on the internet, and made available to unitholders in the Mutual Fund at points where the units were on sale.
3. Unitholders representing at least 1/20 of the Mutual Fund's units are entitled to ask the Manager to convene a meeting of unitholders on any issues associated directly or indirectly with management of the Mutual Fund. The Manager shall be obliged to convene the Unitholders' Meeting for the Mutual Fund no later than 30 days from the date on which it receives the request referred above.
4. Where the net value of the Mutual Fund in relation to the benchmark price, as defined in the indents below, reduces by 5/10, the Hellenic Capital Market Commission may require that the Manager convene the Unitholders' Meeting for the purpose of winding up the mutual fund. The benchmark price will be determined on the first day of each calendar quarter and will be calculated as the arithmetic average of the Mutual Fund's net value for each of the last four quarters. When each new quarter comes to an end, the Mutual Fund's total net value in that quarter shall replace the corresponding value from the oldest quarter in calculating the benchmark price. The redemption of units will be suspended when the Hellenic Capital Market Commission issues a decision requiring the meeting of unitholders in the Mutual Fund to be convened. If the meeting decides to wind up the Mutual Fund, the right to redeem its units may no longer be exercised, or in the opposite case the decision suspending redemption of its units will be revoked.

Article 9 – AMENDMENT OF THESE REGULATIONS

1. These Regulations shall be jointly amended by the Manager and the Custodian, with the approval of the Hellenic Capital Market Commission. Notice of amendments to these Regulations shall be posted without delay on the Manager's website and the Hellenic Capital Market Commission must also be notified at the same time. Notice must also be sent on a durable medium to each unitholder without delay.

2. These amendments shall be binding on unitholders. However, they shall be entitled to request within 3 months from the date of such notice that their units be redeemed based on the redemption conditions which applied before the amendment was made.

THE MANAGER THE CUSTODIAN

Athens, 17 January 2018
